

Calling all would-be marathon runners!

Jane Oldfield is planning to run the Nottingham Experian Robin Hood half marathon to raise funds for The King's School.

She is looking for budding runners to join her. The event takes place in September, so there's plenty of time for training, either alone, or together as a pre-team, which Jane is keen to accommodate.

For further information, please click here: marathon_poster